Data Protection Information

in accordance with Article 13 of the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) for the processing of personal data

Of course we will handle the information you have provided confidentially and in accordance with the legal data protection regulations.

1. Type, purpose and legal basis for the processing of personal data

Your personal data that you provide to the KarriereWegeMentoring project, will only be used in connection with the mentoring programme, following the provision of your consent, for the purpose of processing the application documents for the selection procedure, for finding suitable mentors and for internal email correspondence. Your email address will be used for emails sent to mailing lists comprising other mentees.

2. Use and forwarding of personal data

The data will only be forwarded to the selection committee, but not to any other third party, to a third country or international organisations.

3. Length of storage

Your personal data will be stored for the mandatory storage and documentation periods for this kind of project.

4. Data security

The Computer Centre implements technical and organisational security measures to protect personal data from loss or unauthorised third-party access. The University of Greifswald's employees also only have access to the data that they are authorised to process.

5. Your rights

You are entitled to withdraw your consent for the collection of personal data given on submission of your application at any time, with effect for the future, and without having to provide reasons, by writing to the University of Greifswald, KarriereWegeMentoring, Domstraße 11, 17489 Greifswald, or via email to mentoring@uni-greifswald.de.

Responsible pursuant to the GDPR and other national data protection laws of the member states and other data protection regulations is the:
