euros.

Pay is calculated on a monthly basis and will be paid on the last day of the month into a bank account, setup by the student assistant, in a member state of the European Union.

§ 5

Employment ends at the end of the day, stated in § 1, without notice having to have been given. For graduate assistants working during their studies, it ends, at the latest, on deregistration, if this moment in time is prior to the end of the length of contract. However, it can also be terminated at any time in compliance with the periods of notice prescribed by law. The right of extraordinary termination (§ 626 BGB) remains unchanged. The contract must be terminated in written form.

The employment relationship is based on legal regulations, unless otherwise stated in this contract. § 37 of the TV-L (Collective Agreement for Public Services) applies correspondingly.

If a graduate assistant is unable to work due to reasons caused by a third party, the graduate assistant must assign his/her claims for damages arising from the inability to work, for the period in which payment is being continued, to the state of Mecklenburg-Vorpommern, represented by the University of Greifswald, represented by the Registrar.

§ 7

Changes and supplements to this contract, in particular to its extension, are only effective if they have been agreed to in writing.

Both parties of this contract receive an original copy of the contract.
